Things I Will Learn

I can name the five senses.

I can name the main parts of my body.

I can name my different emotions.

I can talk about people in my family.

I can talk about things that are the same and different between myself and others.

I can talk about where I live.

I can compare where I live to other places and say what is the same and what is different.

Things to Talk About and Find Out:

- I wonder how this feels/smells/tastes/sounds/looks…
- Can you describe it to me?
- Can you name that part of your body?
- How do you feel? Why?
- How do you think they feel? Why?
- Who is in your family?
- What special things do you do together?
- Where do you live?
- What places/buildings are near to your home?
- How does the place you live in look the same/different to this place?
- What can you do now that you could not do when you were a baby?

Topic Words

First, I can try to use these words:

Taste, touch, hear, smell, see, main body part names (leg, foot, head, hand, back, hair, eyes, nose, mouth, ears), happy, sad, angry, worried, home, different, same.

Then, I can try to use these words:

Describing words linked to our senses such as rough, sharp, loud, spicy, sweet, smooth, quiet. Naming other body parts; elbow, shoulder, ankle, chest, wrist.
